

Patch geometry and joint cell-to-patch assignment

Elliptical spatial fit is combined with design contrast, context coherence, and patch hunger

A

Elliptical spatial model

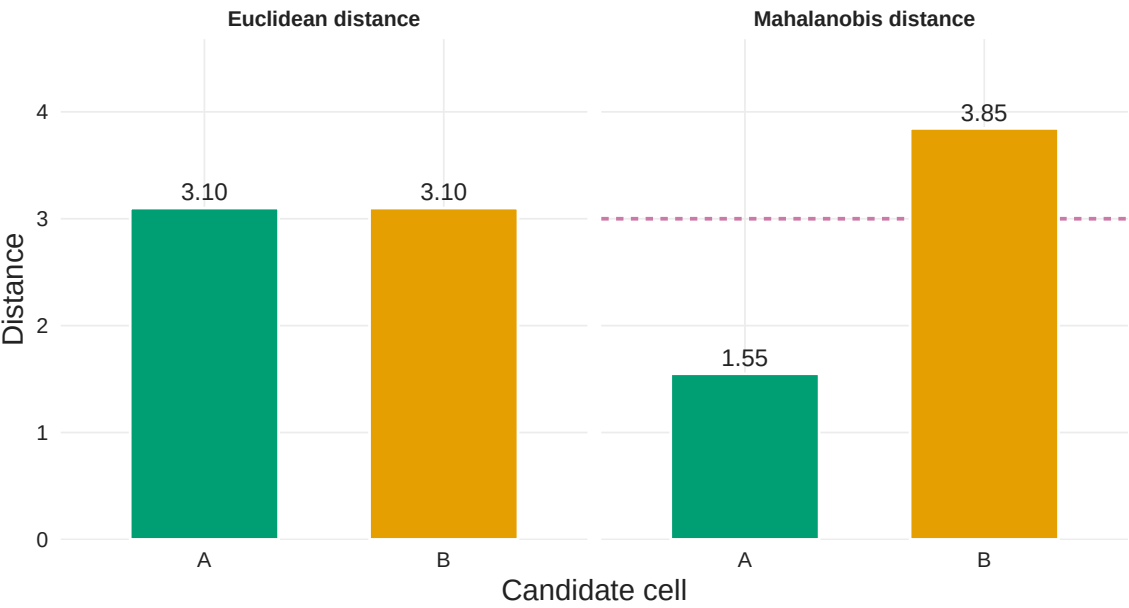

Patch covariance determines orientation, extent, and admissible assignments

B

Same Euclidean distance, different spatial fit

Candidate B crosses the Mahalanobis cutoff because it lies across the narrow axis

C

Signed components of the joint assignment score

The candidate is assigned to the patch with the largest total score

